

Questions

1. Display order IDs and total order value for orders that exceed $2,000 in value.
2. List the names of all the customers in the Database.
3. Show the numbers of orders handled by each employee.
4. Find the customers who have placed orders worth more than $10,000 in total.
5. List each country with the number of customers from that country.
6. List names of all the employees.
7. Find the names of the customers who placed the largest single order by value.
8. Retrieve the names of all products that costs less than $15.
9. Retrieve the names of all products that price greater than $50.
10. List all orders starting from latest to oldest.
11. List the names of products supplied by "Exotic Liquid".
12. Find the average price of products grouped by category.
13. Get a list of all the products that have been ordered more than 12 times.
14. Show the names of customer whose name starts with "w" and the names of the employees who handled their orders.
15. List the top 3 most ordered product by quantity.